

REMINISCENCES

Anecdote related by Mrs. Hill and her daughter,
Miss Hill, April 6, 1937.

Mrs. Lydia Witherell was sewing one Sunday morning and someone asked her what the Lord would think of her violating His day. She said she didn't care what the Lord thought it's the devilish neighbors I'm thinking of.

Anecdote No. 2. Related by the same people.

Mrs. Ann Porter of St. George St., wife of Dr. John Porter, was the mother of very obstreperous twin boys. Somebody inquired after the health of the twins and she replied, "only God and the Gurnet Twin Lights know what I've been through with those twins."
